A SWAN'S SONG

For High or Medium Voice
With Violoncello Obbligato
And Harp (or Piano)
Accompaniment

Poem by SARA YARROW

Music by
CAMILLE SAINT-SAËNS

Arranged by
CARLOS SALZEDO

Price, 50 cents
(In U. S. A.)

G. SCHIRMER, Inc., NEW YORK
To Greta Torpadie

A Swan's Song

Poem by
Sara Yarrow

Saint-Saëns-Salzedo

Violoncello

Voice

Harp (or Piano)

\( \text{\textcopyright, 1933, by G. Schirmer, Inc.} \)

Printed in the U.S.A.
to the silken peace,

holds on its surface a fair white bird:

there waits the swan.
Sundered, the lake from his breast falls sheer,

waiting he floats like a frozen thing,

watching the moon, veiled and secret,
glides with the swift flying clouds!

Then sings the swan, like a cithern's note,

calling* Di-an!

* Pronounce Dee-an

Cg Dg
And in the water's dark mirror he sees her appear, white as a flame drowned in the lake.

Morendo

A tempo

Morendo

L.V.

Morendo
To Greta Torpadie

A Swan’s Song

Violoncello

Saint-Saëns-Salzedo

\[ \text{\textit{A Swan's Song}} \]

\[ \text{\textit{Adagio con sordino}} \]

\[ \text{\textit{pp}} \]

\[ \text{\textit{no retard}} \]

\[ \text{\textit{rit. dim. lento a tempo morendo}} \]

Copyright, 1923, by G. Schirmer, Inc.
Printed in the U.S.A.
COUNT PARTS (1)

Date Due
All library items are subject to recall at any time.

FEB 17 2018

Brigham Young University